GUIDING PRINCIPLES

(from the Code of Ethics, Section II)

We are a civil society organisation committed to respecting the following principles:

1. As coalition builders, we will work co-operatively with all individuals and groups, with for-profit and not-for-profit corporations and organisations, and with governments and international bodies committed to the fight against corruption, subject only to the policies and priorities set by our governing bodies.
2. We undertake to be open, honest and accountable in our relationships with everyone we work with and with each other.
3. We will be democratic, politically non-partisan and non-sectarian in our work.
4. We will condemn corruption in all its forms with vigour and fortitude wherever it has been reliably identified, although we ourselves do not seek to expose or pursue individual cases of corruption.
5. The positions we take will be based on sound, objective and professional analysis and the highest standards of research available to us.
6. We will only accept funding that does not compromise our ability to address issues freely, thoroughly and objectively.
7. We will provide accurate and timely reports of our activities to our stakeholders.
8. We will respect and encourage respect for fundamental rights and freedoms.
9. We are committed to building, working with and working through national chapters worldwide to the greatest degree practicable.
10. We will strive for balanced and diverse representation on our governing bodies
11. We stand ready and prepared at all times to make our findings and recommendations public and, subject to such legal or moral restraints as may be equitably imposed on us from time to time, will do so in a manner not intended to target, belittle or castigate specific organisations and/or individuals.
